

“Let’s Write”

Week 26

This week you are going to use this bubble map in order to write a paragraph in response to the Week 26, “Let’s Write” activity in your Social Studies Weekly magazine. You may print this out or draw on a separate sheet of paper.

Imagine you were on the bus with Wilhelmina Jakes and Carrie Patterson in 1956. How do you think you would have reacted when the bus driver told them to move and called the police? If a reporter asked you about what happened, what would you say? Before you begin to write, think about what your reaction would be. Use the bubble map below to organize your thoughts. Once you have finished, use your thoughts in a paragraph. Be sure to elaborate on your thoughts and use proper grammar, spelling and punctuation.
